REVISIONISTS DO NOT DISPUTE THAT JEWS WERE PERSECUTED, DEPRIVED OF CIVIL RIGHTS, DEPORTED, INTERNED AND FORCED TO WORK AT CONCENTRATION CAMPS OR THAT JEWS DIED IN THOSE CAMPS AND GHETTOS DURING THE WAR, WHEN DISEASES BECAME A MAJOR PROBLEM. NEITHER DO THEY DISPUTE THAT CRIMINAL COMMUNIST PARTISANS, WHICH A MAJORITY OF WERE JEWS- WERE KILLED BY SHOOTING AND HANGING DURING THE WARS.

"When Germany realized that the Jews were responsible for her defeat, they naturally resented it. But not a hair on the head of any Jew was harmed. Not a single hair. Professor Tansill, of Georgetown University, who had access to all the secret papers of the State Department, wrote in his book, and quoted from a State Department document written by Hugo Schoenfelt, a Jew who Cordell Hull sent to Europe in 1933 to investigate the so-called camps of political prisoners. And he wrote back that he found them in very fine condition.

They were in excellent shape; everybody treated well. And they were filled with Communists. Well, a lot of them were Jews, because the Jews happened to be maybe 98 per cent of the Communists in Europe at that time. And there were some priests there, and ministers, and labor leaders, Masons, and others who had international affiliations."

Benjamin Freedman, Jewish anti-Zionist/anti-Communist .

Documents from the German camps shows an order that Heinrich Himmler, chief of the Concentration Camps issued orders on December 28, 1942, that:

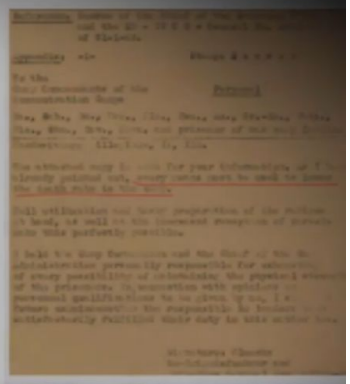

"The death rate in the concentration camps must be reduced at all costs"

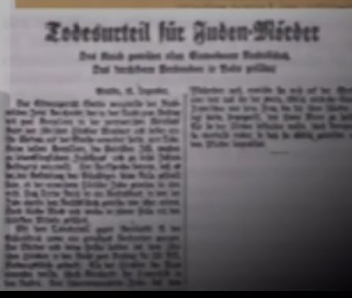

The camps were mainly factories and the loss of workers was hurting war production. Inspector of the camps, Richard Glucks responded to Himmler's order on January 20, 1943, "Every means should be used to LOWER the death rates in the camp." (Nuremberg Tribunal Document No. 1523).

On April 10, 1943, Oswald Pohl, head of the Economic Administration Office of the camps issued a letter stating that persons with tuberculosis were being sent to the camps resulting in the "shockingly high mortality figures." Later, on September 30, 1943, Pohl was able to show that the camp death rate had been reduced from 8.5% in July, 1942 to 2.8% in June 1943. In May 1940 Himmler wrote: "We reject the Bolshevist method of physical destruction of a people as un-Germanic and impossible."

Already in 1937 several German Newspapers reported that murdering Jews would be punishable by death. Josef Reinhardt had been sentenced to death for killing a Jewish merchant Abraham and his gentile wife. Murder was murder regardless of the victim.

In the camps were Camp complaints offices where inmates could register complaints or make suggestions. A system of strict discipline for both guards

No scientific proof Jews exterminated: witness

TORONTO (CP) — There are no scientific reports proving that Jews were exterminated in Nazi gas chambers, a Holocaust scholar conceded yesterday at the trial of Ernst Zundel.

But Raul Hilberg, a University of Vermont political science professor, testified that — even though German war documents contain no mention of killing Jews — euphemisms for death such as "resettlement" and "special treatment" were used so commonly that Heinrich Himmler, head of the Gestapo, requested substitute phrases.

Hilberg, who has spent 36 years studying the Holocaust and the subsequent Nuremberg trials of war criminals, testified earlier for the Crown that five million Jews were killed during the war.

Zundel, 46, a West German citizen living in Toronto, is charged with two counts of publishing statements that are known to be false and likely to cause injury or mischief to the public interest of maintaining social and racial tolerance.

Two of his publications — one called Did Six Million Really Die? — postulate that the Holocaust was a hoax to vilify Germans and exact compensation payments from them.

"Can you give me one scientific report that shows the existence of gas chambers anywhere in Nazi-occupied territory?" defence counsel Douglas Christie asked Hilberg during day-long rapid-fire cross-examination.

"I am at a loss," Hilberg replied.

"You are (at a loss) because you can't," Christie said.

Hilberg countered that there are aerial photographs of concentration camps, examples of ruined gas chambers, German industrial documents describing the lethal nature of various gases and filters for gas masks which were found at the camps.

Hilberg agreed with Christie that there are no autopsy reports indicating that even a single person died from exposure to poisonous gas in chambers.

But, Hilberg said, "In tens of thousands of (Nazi) documents, people were 'resettled' or 'the Jewish problem was solved' but the word killing was (not) used."

Mass Nazi gassings impossible expert witness tells Zundel trial

TORONTO (CP) — Mass gassings using hydrogen cyanide would have been physically impossible in the large, unsealed rooms that were called Nazi gas chambers, a United States chemist testified yesterday at the trial of Ernst Zundel.

William Lindsey said he can't believe historical accounts that between one million and 2.5 million were gassed at the Auschwitz-Birkenau camps in Poland.

Recognition

Lindsey was recognized by the court as an expert witness on hydrogen cyanide, the poison said to have been used to kill millions of Jews at Nazi death camps.

"After looking over the evidence ... I've been forced to conclude it is impossible for it to have happened the way it's been described," said Lindsey, a research associate at an Iowa chemical company for 33 years.

"There are too many inconsistencies. ... No one was wilfully and purposefully killed with Zyklon B (gas) in this manner," added the defence witness, who said he shares "revisionist" Holocaust information with Zundel.

Zundel, 46, a West German citizen living in Toronto, has pleaded not guilty to knowingly publishing false information likely to cause social or racial intolerance.

Two of his publications dismiss Second World War genocide of Jews as a hoax and a Zionist conspiracy to extract reparations from Germany.

Zyklon B, which contains one-third liquid hydrogen cyanide, was named at the post-war Nuremberg trials as the killing agent in underground gas chambers.

Hydrogen cyanide is so deadly that 300 parts per million vaporized in air will kill humans in three minutes, Lindsey told the District Court jury.

But the underground chambers were cool, he said, and it takes a higher temperature to readily vaporize the solid Zyklon B.

Lindsey later said under cross-examination that the chemical's boiling point is 26 degrees and admitted body heat would raise the temperature in crowded chambers.

Lindsey, who visited all of the eastern European Nazi camps to pursue his interest in "allegations" of Holocaust gassings, said the chambers leaked and people outside them would have been killed.

Flimsy doors

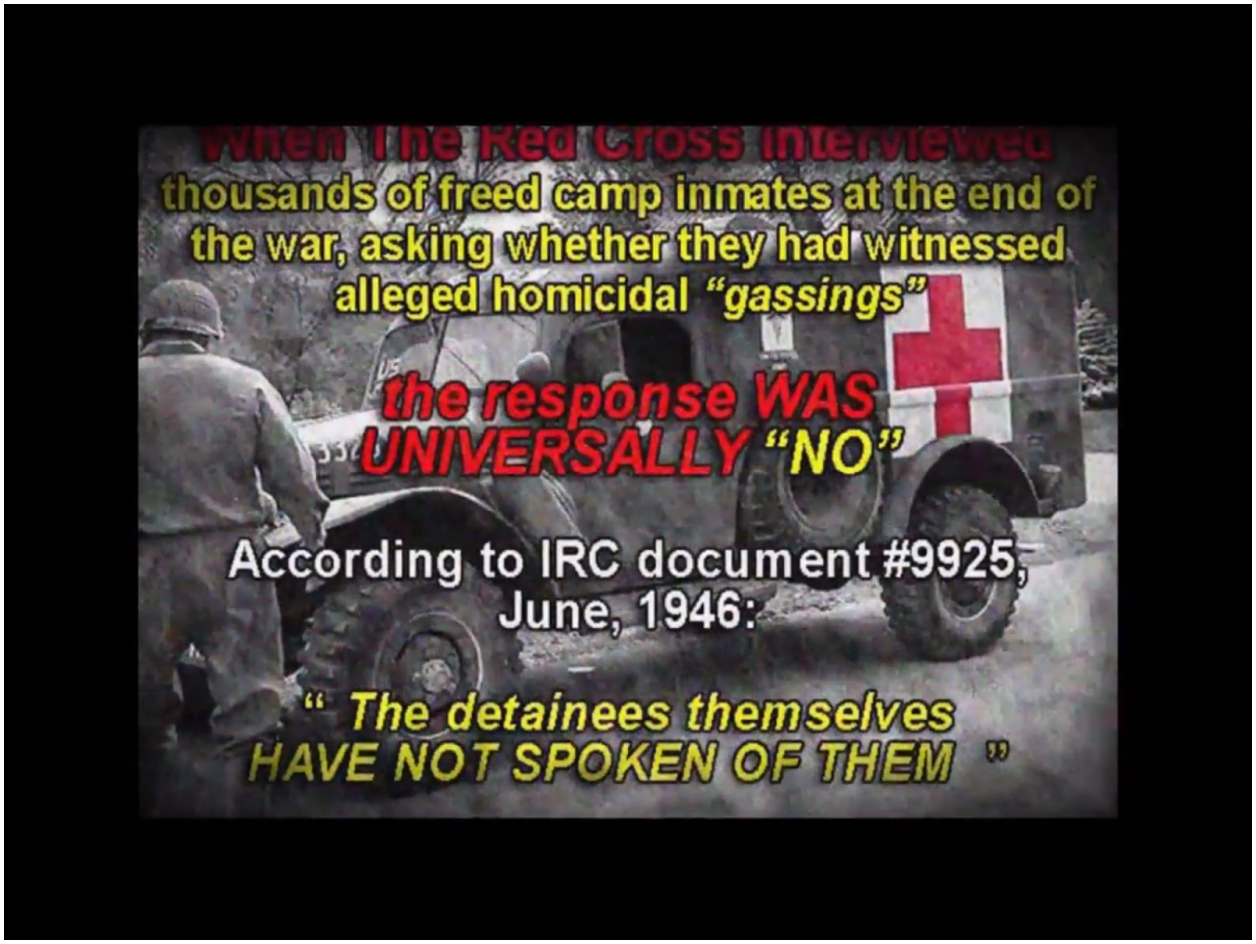

He described the Auschwitz chamber as having two flimsy wooden doors, one with a glass pane, and a hole in the roof.

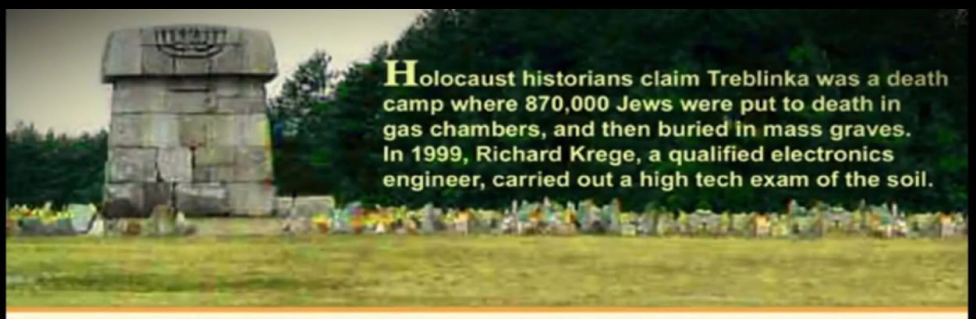

Lindsey disputed earlier testimony by a Crown witness who said he pulled wet, recently gassed corpses from the chambers.

"You can absorb hydrogen cyanide easily (through the skin)," he said. "Unless you washed quickly, you would join the alleged pile of victims you were carrying out."

"WE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO DISCOVER ANY TRACE OF INSTALLATIONS FOR EXTERMINATING CIVILIAN PRISONERS."

THE GAS CHAMBERS OF WORLD WAR ONE

It was widely reported during World War One (1914 to 1918) that the Germans, and their allies, were using gas chambers to kill thousands of prisoners. However after the end of the War Stanley Baldwin admitted in Parliament that it had been propaganda, and no such gas chambers had existed. He also apologised publicly to the German People for this.

AN ARTICLE PRINTED IN BRITAIN'S THE DAILY TELEGRAPH ON MARCH 22, 1916 STATED THAT "THE AUSTRIANS & BULGARIANS WERE KILLING PEOPLE BY SHUTTING THEM UP IN CHURCHES AND SUFFOCATING THEM WITH POISON GAS."

SOME OF THE PROPAGANDA LIES SAID THAT THE GERMANS WERE:

CUTTING OFF CHILDREN'S HANDS, CRUCIFYING CANADIAN SOLDIERS, MAKING HUMAN SOAP IN A "CORPSE FACTORY", GOUGING OUT THE EYES OF CIVILIANS, CUTTING OFF THE HANDS OF TEENAGE BOYS, RAPING AND SEXUALLY MUTILATING WOMEN, GIVING CHILDREN HAND GRENADES TO PLAY WITH, AND BAYONETING BABIES.

ATROCITIES IN SERBIA.

700,000 VICTIMS.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

ROME, Monday (6.45 p.m.).

The Governments of the Allies have secured evidence and documents, which will shortly be published, proving that Austria and Bulgaria have been guilty of horrible crimes in Serbia, where the massacres committed were worse than those perpetrated by Turkey in Armenia.

The Italian Government has to-day published the testimony of two Italian prisoners who escaped from Austria through Serbia, and took refuge in Roumania. What these two prisoners saw and learned, however, was nothing compared with the evidence supplied by the Ser-

Pope. According to reliable information, the victims of the Austrians and Bulgarians exceeded 700,000. Whole districts, with towns and villages, have been depopulated by massacres. Women, children, and old men were shut up in the churches by the Austrians, and either stabbed with the bayonet or suffocated by means of asphyxiating gas. In one church in Belgrade 3,000 women, children, and old men were thus suffocated.

Serbian refugees, not on oath, have stated that they were present at a distribution of bombs and machines for producing asphyxiating gas to the Bulgarians by the Germans and Austrians, who instructed the former how to utilise these instruments to exterminate the Serbian population. The Bulgarians used this method at Nish, Pirot, Prisrend, and Negotin, the inhabitants of which places died of suffocation. Similar means were employed by the

We know the methods of rule employed by the Bolshevik dictator in Russia itself from, for example, the writing and speeches of the Prime Minister himself during the last twenty years. We know how the Red Army behaved in Poland in 1920 and in Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Galicia, and Bessarabia only recently.

We must, therefore, take into account how the Red Army will certainly behave when it overruns Central Europe. Unless precautions are taken, the obviously inevitable horrors which will result will throw an undue strain on public opinion in this country.

We cannot reform the Bolsheviks but we can do our best to save them —and ourselves—from the consequences of their acts. The disclosures of the past quarter of a century will render mere denials unconvincing. The only alternative to denial is to distract public attention from the whole subject.

Experience has shown that the best distraction is atrocity propaganda directed against the enemy. Unfortunately the public is no longer so susceptible as in the days of the "Corpse Factory," the "Mutilated Belgian Babies," and the "Crucified Canadians."

In 1939 Britain pledged assistance to Poland in the event of aggression. By our declaration of the 3rd of September we did associate ourselves with her cause, although we could afford no material support. This declaration of war was made when her western frontiers were overrun by Germany, but no similar declaration was made when on the 17th of September her eastern defenses were stormed by Russia. A delicate question. Our action, if hardly logical, was at least indicative of the realistic trends of British diplomatic machinations.

This first issue, virtually a test case, if not honorably settled will rout any hope we may have of a balance of power in Europe. It will constitute a flagrant disregard by the U.S.S.R. of all treaties ratified by her and a virtual admission by Britain of the U.S.S.R. as the supreme power in Europe. A sorry tribute to Britain and to her Empire, which stood alone during those dark and crucial days after the fall of France.

You raised the question in your speech of British approval of the Russo-Polish frontiers. But, surely the guarantee of these frontiers and our frequent re-affirmation of our intention to restore them was sufficient indication of our approval of them. The League of Nations set up after the last war was admittedly a failure, but what hope can we have of establishing any similar institution, the existence of which in some form will be essential to safeguard post-war Europe from the disasters of this first part of the twentieth century—if the U.S.S.R. assumes the role of European dictator even before the peace is won?

Let it not be recorded for posterity how the descendant of the glorious Marlborough was diverted from his path of honor and justice by the ruthless leader of a terror regime, and we can hardly consider that of the Soviet as other than terrorist, when to maintain order it required to detain in captivity twenty millions of its one hundred and eighty millions subjects.

Let it not be said of the one-time invincible Churchill: "Were it not better had he gone down in his glory at Teheran before the pass was sold, rather than live to associate his name and that of the Empire with such ignominy and shame."

(Signed) R. J. CAMBELL.[45]

As the Polish press in England indicated, undoubtedly many Poles would have identified themselves with the spirit and the wording of this communication.

It was rather difficult, however, to sway Churchill from a policy, once he had adopted it. And apparently Churchill was determined to carry out his Teheran commitments loyally.

On February 29, 1944 the British Ministry of Information sent the following note to the higher British clergy and to the BBC.

Sir,

I am directed by the Ministry to send you the following circular letter:

It is often the duty of the good citizens and of the pious Christians to turn a blind eye on the peculiarities of those associated with us.

But the time comes when such peculiarities, while still denied in public, must be taken into account when action by us is called for.

We know the methods of rule employed by the Bolshevik dictator in Russia itself from, for example, the writing and speeches of the Prime Minister himself during the last twenty years. We know how the Red Army behaved in Poland in 1920 and in Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Galicia, and Bessarabia only recently.

The Ministry can enter into no correspondence of any kind with regard to this communication which should only be disclosed to responsible persons.[46]

It is unknown how many recipients of this communication complied with the above instructions.

On March 9, 1944 Mr. McLaren, the Head of the Political Desk of the Political Intelligence Department in the British Foreign Office, informed Mr. J. Zaranski, the counselor to the Polish Prime Minister, that he had received a specific order to prepare a series of broadcasts to Poland in Polish and other languages in order to prepare Polish public opinion about the necessity of giving up a considerable part of its eastern territories without mentioning, for the time being, the Curzon Line. These broadcasts were almost ready in the BBC, and they would go on the air without any delay. Upon being informed of this proposal, Mikolajczyk categorically rejected the plan, as a result of which the Foreign Office temporarily abandoned it.[47]

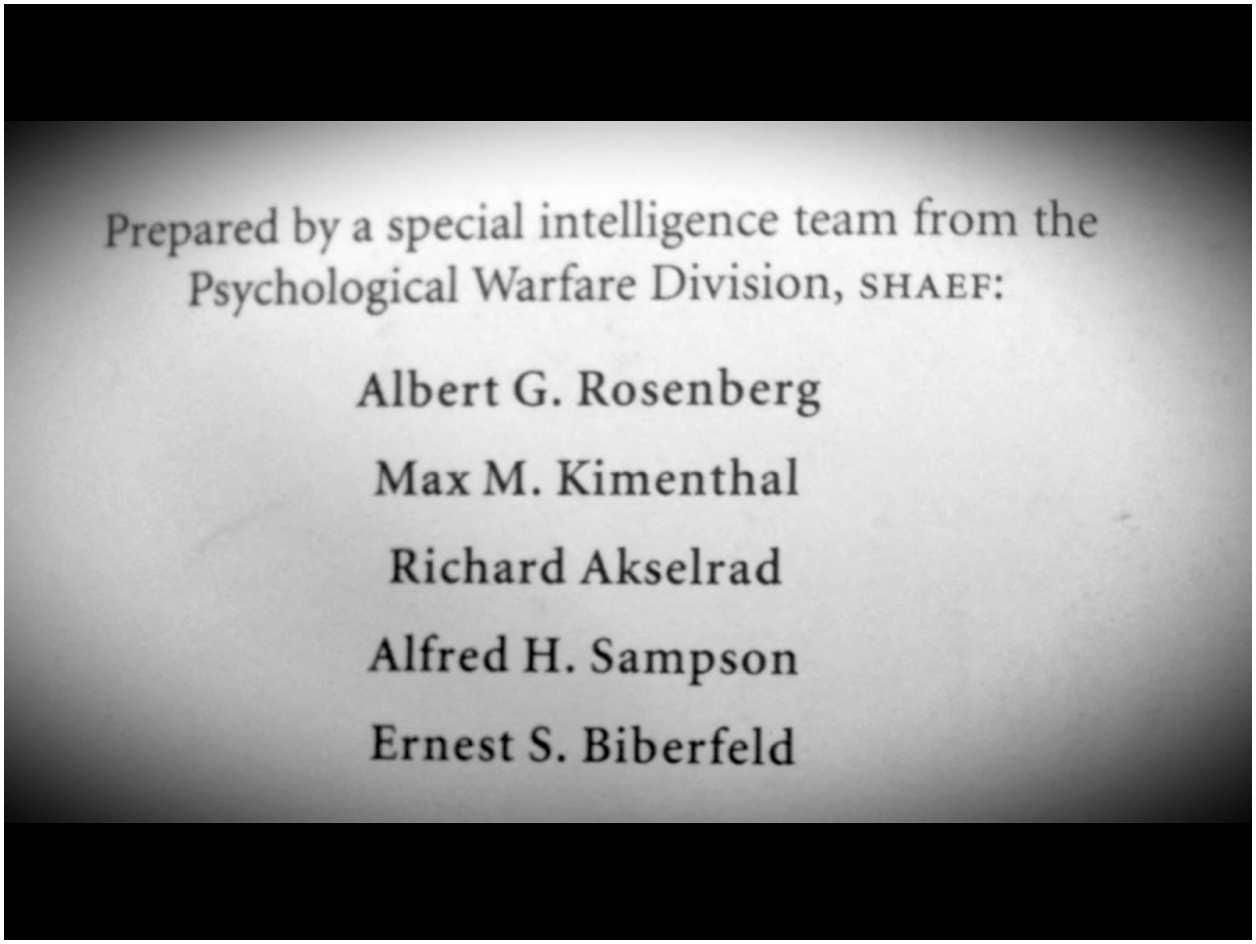

At the same time, the democratic organizations which were fighting the Nazis and suddenly were faced with a new terror, sent an urgent appeal to the peoples of the world through their Government in London, asking for help and implying that they had lost faith in Western leaders.

"Atrocity propaganda is how we won the war. And we're only really beginning with it now! We will continue this atrocity propaganda, we will escalate it until nobody will accept even a good word from the Germans, until all the sympathy they may still have abroad will have been destroyed and they themselves will be so confused that they will no longer know what they are doing. Once that has been achieved, once they begin to run down their own country and their own people, not reluctantly but with eagerness to please the victors, only then will our victory be complete. It will never be final.

Re-education needs careful tending, like an English lawn. Even one moment of negligence, and the weeds crop up again - those indestructible weeds of historical truth."

Human fat wasn't used by Nazis, Israel's Holocaust Museum says

Reuter

JERUSALEM

Israel's Holocaust Museum, rebutting a common belief, said yesterday that the Nazis never made soap from human fat of murdered Jews during the Second World War.

"Historians have concluded that soap was not made from human fat. When so many people deny the Holocaust ever happened, why give them something to use against the truth?" said Shmuel Krakoski of the Yad Vashem Museum.

Israeli Holocaust historian Yehuda Bauer said there is no evidency Nazi Germany used corpses for soap, although it did use skin for lampshades and hair for mattresses.

He said many Jews believed murdered families had been turned into soap because the Nazis themselves propagated the idea as "a sadistic tool for mental torture."

Yad Vashem, the Israel Holocaust Memorial Authority, last week upheld the recent statement by Professor Yehuda Bauer, an eminent Holocaust historian, that the Nazis never made soap from human fat.

No documentation exists to back up such allegations against

Bauer, a professor at the Hebrew University and head of the International Centre for Research on anti-Semitism, said at Wine House in Tel Aviv, "The Nazis never made soap from Jews because they did not have such technology."

Shmuel Krakoski, archives director at Yad Vashem, explained that the reason many believed

"What is clear is that soap was made on which the letters RIS were inscribed, and there was propaganda that this soap was made from Jews," said Krakoski. RIS supposedly stood for Rein Idisha Seif.

The Nazis did however use the skin and hair of humans to make various products, said Krakoski.

Jews DO control the media

JULY 1, 2012, 11:05 AM | 36

Elad Nehorai is a writer

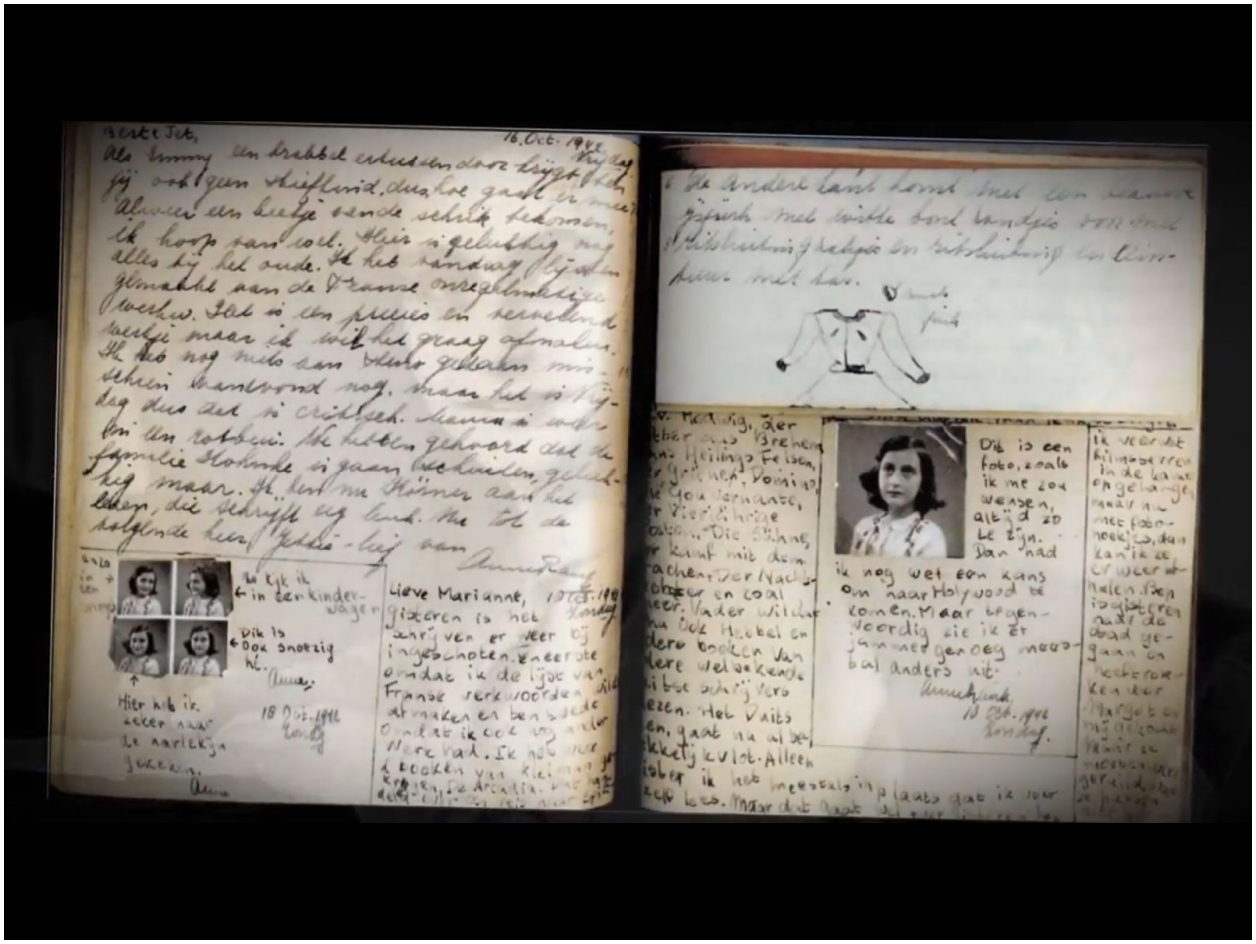

We Jews are a funny breed. We love to brag about every Jewish actor. Sometimes we even pretend an actor is Jewish just because we like him enough that we think he deserves to be on our team. We brag about Jewish authors, Jewish politicians, Jewish directors. Every time someone mentions any movie or book or piece of art, we inevitably say something like, "Did you know that he was Jewish?" That's just how we roll.

"Let's be honest with ourselves, here, fellow Jews. We do control the media. We've got so many dudes up in the executive offices in all the big movie production companies it's almost obscene. [...] Did you know that all eight major film studios are run by Jews?"

"I want America to know of our accomplishment. Yes, we control Hollywood. I don't care if Americans think we're running the news media, Hollywood, Wall Street or the government. I just care that we get to keep running them."

Anne Frank may not have inked that famous diary

By AL FREDRICKS

A REPORT by the German Federal Criminal Investigation Bureau (BKA) indicates that portions of The Diary of Anne Frank had been altered or added after 1951, casting doubt over the authenticity of the entire work, the West German news weekly Der Spiegel has disclosed.

The diary, a day-to-day account of the anguish of a young Jewish girl and her family hiding in in their Amsterdam home during the Nazi invasion, has touched the hearts of millions.

The manuscript was examined on orders of a West German court as part of a libel action brought by Otto Frank, Anne's father and the only family member to survive the concentration camps, against Ernst Roemer for spreading the allegation the book was a fraud.

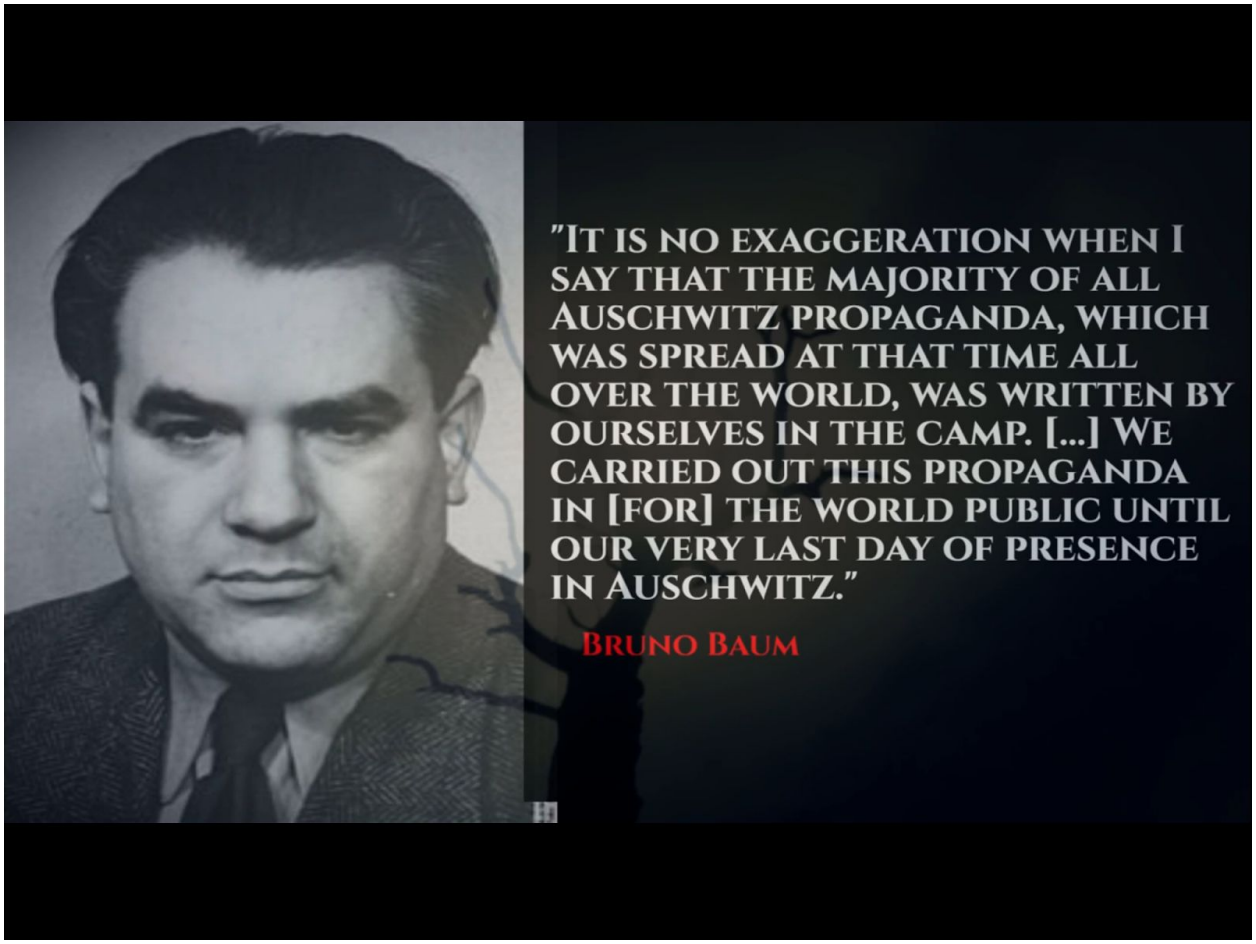

This was the second suit against Roemer, a long-time critic of the book, by Frank. In the first case, the court decided in Frank's favor when the testimony of historians and graphologists sufficed to authenticate the diary.

In April, however, only a short time before Otto Frank's death on Aug. 19, the manuscript was turned over to technicians of the BKA for examination.

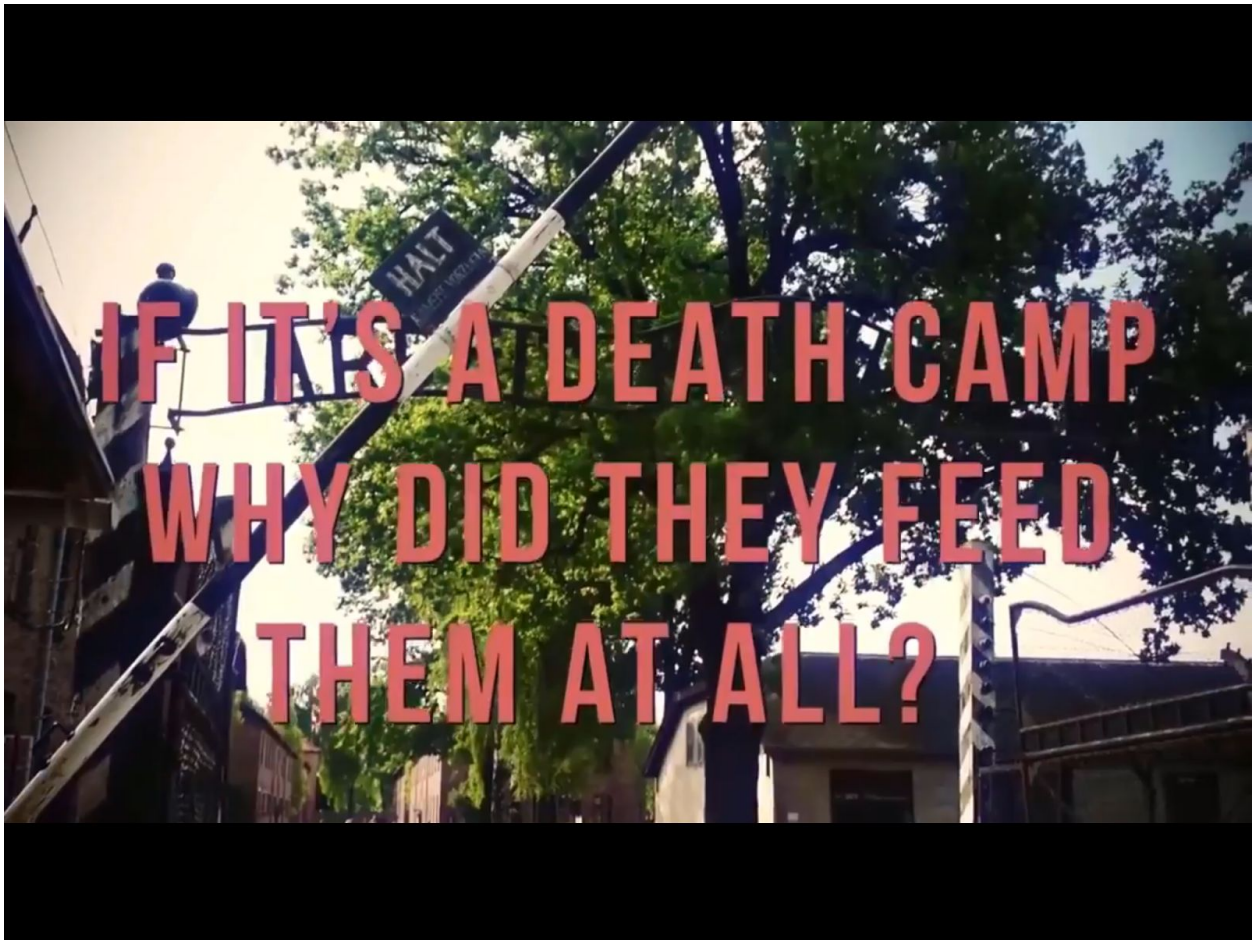

The manuscript, in the form of three hardbound notebooks and 324 loose pages bound in a fourth notebook, was examined with special equipment.

The results of tests performed at the BKA laboratories show that portions of the work, specifically of the fourth volume, were written with a ball point pen. Since ballpoint pens were not available before 1951, the BKA concluded, those sections must have been added subsequently.

The examination of the manuscript did not, however, unearth any conclusive evidence to lay to rest the speculations about the authenticity of the first three notebooks.

"It is no exaggeration when I say that the majority of all Auschwitz propaganda, which was spread at that time all over the world, was written by ourselves in the camp. [...] We carried out this propaganda in [for] the world public until our very last day of presence in Auschwitz."

Officials from the International Red Cross visited the camps regularly & had complete access to the camps, documented everything & estimated the total dead from ALL the camps to be around 271,000- 290.000.

About half of these dead were Jewish, so we are now talking about some 150-200.000 Jews that died in the German camps primarily of disease. In the 1650 page Red Cross report there was never a mention of any gas chambers. There basically were four categories interned during the war: Poles, Jews, Russians and 'political prisoners' sometimes alluded to as 'Germans.' Jews made up less 40% of Auschwitz, only around 12% of Dachau and only around 30% of Buchenwald.

The following for Huddle and McClelland is from Department and War Refugee Board.
Reference Department's 192 of January 13, Irish Department of External Affairs confirms that it inquired of German authorities concerning the rumor that Germans intended to liquidate the inmates of camps Oswiecim, Hoss and Birkenau, and that the Germans replied to the rumor that it is their intention to exterminate the Jews in those camps is pure invention devoid of all foundation and that if the camps were to be abandoned their inmates would be evacuated.
Please request Swiss Political Department to inform German Government that the above reply of German authorities to Ireland has been noted by the Government of the United States, and that this Government accordingly expects that Jewish and other survivors of these and other concentration, detention and labor camps in Germany and German-controlled territory will be kept alive by German authorities.
In view of the nearness of Oswiecim and Birkenau to the front, it is urgent that the above communication reach German authorities with the greatest possible speed.

Moscow Publishing House Completes First Book on Nazi Murders

By Henry Shapiro
(United Press Staff Writer)

Moscow, Nov. 27.—A five-volume "black book" containing a documentary record of the German massacre of approximately 6,000,000 European Jews is being prepared by the state publishing house.

The first volume has been completed and will be distributed before Jan. 1.

The work was under the general editorship of Ilya Ehrenborg and the editorial board included poet-playwright Konstantin Simonov, writer Vsevold Ivanov, and poetess Vera Imber.

To Contain Four Categories

The "black book" will contain four categories: German decrees and orders of the day; eyewitness accounts of survivors of murder camps; diaries and letters of the victims; and accounts by non-Jews who aided in the escape of certain prisoners.

Data available to the editors indicated that between 5,000,000 and 6,000,000 Russian, Polish, and western Europe Jews were killed and an additional half million Jews face probable death in Hungary now.

The "black book" will show that systematic annihilation of the Jews began in 1939 and was carried out in eight principal places with death methods including gas chamber asphyxiation, electrocution, firing squads, bacterial inoculation, and with carbon moxide chambers.

One of the largest camps was operated near Warsaw where a majority of Polish Jews and many polish Catholics were killed, the black book editors said.

Of Poland's prewar Jewish population of 3,100,000, about 250,000 were known to be in Russia. All of the others, who had been under German rule, were killed with the exception of 8,000 escapees, the editors estimated.

In many of the reoccupied areas, the Russians found intact records listing the names and origin of victims along with identification certificates, passports, and photographs.

Among letters left behind by victims, this correspondent saw one from a woman and a girl addrsed to their husband and father, "M. Wishner, 196 Central Ave., Oranze, N. J."

"They're coming to murder us," the wife wrote. "The only thing you can do is to avenge us."

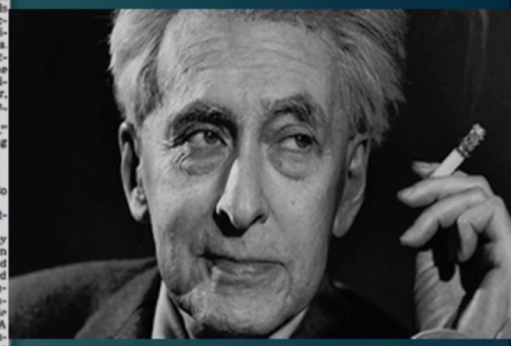

Wanted to Live

The little daughter scribbled: "I want to live. I am afraid to to die."

Signatures on the tea-stained letter were illegible.

(Radio Moscow announced Sunday that German Field Marshals Von Leeb and George von Kuechler and seven generals had been named along with the "Hitlerite government" and the "German high command" as war criminals responsible for 46,000 atrocities in Estonia. A Pravda editorial broadcast by Moscow said "these criminals cannot escape responsibility" and added that the guilt of Alfred Rosenberg, Nazi minister for occupied eastern territories, had been "established on the same ground.")

REMEMBER, REMEMBER, REMEMBER

By Ilya Ehrenburg

THE Pommersche Zeitung writes: "Our fight was honest from the very first, for we did not cross our frontiers in a fit of blind folly, with the intention of subjugating other nations. On the contrary, having been forced to leave our frontiers behind us, we came as heralds of a new order and a new justice. No German ever harboured the idea of destroying the English, punishing the French or enslaving the Dutch or any other people, or living on the blood and sweat of other nations. On the contrary, our victories radiated is left of Germany's great past. We laugh at the degenerates who would substitute a genealogical tree for intelligence or knowledge. The nations that burns down museums and libraries and yet boasts of Schiller or Kant is ridiculous and repulsive.

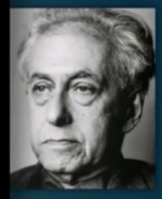

"The Germans are proud of their present, others declare. What have they to be proud of? Goering's uranius? Goebbels' bathery? The ignorance and corruption of their Ministers? Himmler's industry? Or perhaps they relish themselves on their technical development more efficient Maidaneks.

I am not a politician; my occupation is one that has to do with human feelings, for every writer is, in a way, a psychologist. But every writer is also a moralist, even if he never stops to think about morals. I want, as a writer, to recall the spiritual sources of Fascism.

For years the Hitlerites have been moulding the minds of German adolescents. What did they instil into the young Fascist? A sense of superiority. The world now knows what racial and national arrogance mean. If every nation is going to decide that it is the best in the world, and is therefore entitled to dominate the rest, we shall be seeing more Maidaneks before the twentieth century is out.

What is Germany's arrogance based on? On her past, some will say. True enough, the Germans in the past had wonderful philosophers, musicians, poets and scientists. No anti-Fascist would think of repudiating Goethe or Beethoven. But culture is not an amulet; it is a process of creation. In Fascist Germany nothing worthy tree than the cypress or the cedar. Of course, one's mother may be cleverer than her neighbours, but one loves her not for that, but because she is one's mother. True patriotism is modest, and has nothing in common with nationalism. Patriotism means brotherhood: nationalism means slaughter and death.

"Man muss den Slaven an die Wand drücken."—"The Slavs must be forced to the wall." The Germans were reared on this stupid, disgusting maxim. They weren't told that the Slav peoples had produced Huss and Copernicus, Tolstoy and Chekhov, Chopin and Tchaikovsky, Mendeleyev and Lobachevsky. And the brutalised pupils did really come to believe that great, talented, virile nations must be "stood against the wall."

And why? Because Hans wears a green hat with a feather, because Willi adores skittles, and because Fritz whispers "Katchen" into his bride's ear.

A RUSSIAN COUNTRY CRAFT

By A. Pynin

THE former Nizhni Novgorod Gubernia, now the Gorky Region, has since time immemorial been famous for village handicrafts. Articles manufactured from wood were the main speciality. Wooden household utensils were turned out by the million: cups, milk-pails, dishes, trays. They were found everywhere, but were most popular in the near-here, timberless areas.

The centre of the wood-turning industry was the town of Semyonov. In the old days whole families would be engaged in the craft. They excelled in primitive ornament, grass, flowers and berries.

Russia liked the wooden ware, and so did foreigners. The growing demand led to an improvement in the style, which culminated in the famous "Khokhloma" patterns.

For many years the most talented craftsmen were the Krasnilnikov family from the village of Bezdeli (now Novo-Podvorskoye, Kovernin Region). At its head were Fyodor Krasnilnikov, his son Nikolai and his younger brother Stepan.

With his great fondness for what was native to Russia, our great writer Maxim Gorky, who was born in Nizhni Novgorod, greatly prized the Khokhloma style. The Krasnilnikovs were personal friends of his. While living at Sorrento, Italy, he received a present from home in the shape of 120 articles painted by Fyodor Krasnilnikov. He was highly pleased, and wrote to tell friends at Nizhni: "I admired them every day. And as for the Italians, they are in raptures over them."

There is no one left alive now of the Krasnilnikov family, but their craft is carried on by young artists carefully reared by the veteran Fyodor himself.

No. Germany cannot obliterate her crimes by putting the clock forward.

HERRENVOLK DO THE CHORES

The Crucifixion of Jews Must Stop!

By MARTIN H. GLYNN

(Former Governor of the State of N. Y.)

From across the sea six million men and women call to us for help, and eight hundred thousand little children cry for bread.

These children, these men and women are our fellow-members of the human family, with the same claim on life as we, the same susceptibility to the winter's cold, the same propensity to death before the fangs of hunger. Within them reside the illimitable possibilities for the advancement of the human race as naturally would reside in six million human beings. We may not be their keepers but we ought to be their helpers.

In the face of death, in the throes of starvation there is no place for mental distinctions of creed, no place for physical differentiations of race. In this catastrophe, when six million human beings are being whirled toward the grave by a cruel and relentless fate, only the most idealistic promptings of human nature should sway the heart and move the hand.

Six million men and women are dying from lack of the necessaries of life; eight hundred thousand children cry for bread. And this fate is upon them through no fault of their own, through no transgression of the laws of God or man; but through the awful tyranny of war and a bigoted lust for Jewish blood.

In this threatened holocaust of human life, forgotten are the niceties of philosophical distinction, forgotten are the differences of historical interpretation; and the determination to help the helpless, to shelter the homeless, to clothe the naked and to feed the hungry becomes a religion at whose altar men of every race can worship and women of every creed can kneel. In this calamity the temporalities of man's fashionings fall away before the eternal verities of life, and we awaken to the fact that from the hands of one God we all come and before the tribunal of one God we all must stand on the day of final reckoning. And when that reckoning comes mere profession of lips will not weigh a pennyweight; but deeds, mere intangible deeds, deeds that dry the tear of sorrow and allay the pain of anguish, deeds that with the spirit of the Good Samaritan pour oil and wine in wounds and find sustenance and shelter for the suffering and the stricken, will outweigh all the stars in the heavens, all the waters in the seas, all the rocks and metals in all the celestian globes that revolve in the firmament around us.

Race is a matter of accident; creed, partly a matter of inheritance, partly a matter of environment, partly one's method of rationalization; but our physical in all of us by the hand of God, and the man or woman who can, and will not, hear the cry of the starving; who can, and will not, take heed of the wail of the dying; who can, and will not, stretch forth a helping hand to those who sink beneath the waves of adversity is an assassin of nature's finest instincts, a traitor to the cause of the human family and an abjurer of the natural law written upon the tablets of every human heart by the finger of God himself.

And so in the spirit that turned the poor widow's votive offering of copper into silver, and the silver into gold when placed upon God's altar, the people of this country are called upon to sanctify their money by giving $35,000,000 in the name of the humanity of Moses to six million famished men and women.

Six million men and women are dying —eight hundred thousand little children are crying for bread.

And why?

Because of a war to lay Autocracy in the dust and give Democracy the sceptre of the Just.

And in that war for democracy 280,000 Jewish lads from the United States the 77th Division alone there were 14,000 of them, and in Argonne Forest this division captured 54 German guns. This shows that at Argonne the Jewish boys from the United States fought for democracy as Joshua fought against the Amalekites on the plains of Abraham. In an address on the so-called "Lost Battalion," led by Colonel Whittlesey of Pittsfield, Major-General Alexander shows the fighting stuff these Jewish boys were made of. In some way or another Whittlesey's command was surrounded. They were short of rations. They tried to get word back to the rear telling of their plight. They tried and they tried, but their men never got through. Perplexity and stupefaction and despair were in the air. And when the hour was darkest and all seemed lost, a soldier lad stepped forward, and said to Col. Whittlesey: "I will try to get through." He tried, he was wounded, he had to creep and crawl, but he got through. To-day he wears the Distinguished Service Cross and his name is

ABRAHAM KROTOSHINSKY.

Because of this war for Democracy six million Jewish men and women are starving across the seas; eight hundred thou-

This is the cry that comes from the Jews of Europe to the Jews of America

"Make them understand that we are dying! Make them understand that a whole people is dying!

Dying for lack of food!
Dying for lack of medical help!
Dying for lack of shelter!

"Make them understand that hundreds upon hundreds are killing themselves because their suffering and the suffering of their loved ones has made life unbearable.

"Make them understand that millions of Jews are trapped in Europe and there is no hope except the Jews of America help.

"We solemnly declare to the Jews of America that never in the history of the Jewish people, dating back for centuries, was there a situation like this, and never before in the history of the Jewish people was there any emergency as great as this.

"Time and again the Jews of America have saved us from death. And now, from the depths of our despair, we plead with you again to help us quickly or we perish."

The American Jewish Relief Committee, called into being at a conference of more than 100 national Jewish organizations which was held at Temple Emanu-El on Oct. 25 to consider the plight of more than 6,000,000 Jews who live within the war zone, has elected Louis Marshall Chairman, Cyrus L. Dr. Paul Nathan's View of Russian Massacre

STARTLING reports of the condition and future of Russia's 6,000,000 Jews were made on March 12 in Berlin to the annual meeting of the Central Jewish Relief League of Germany by Dr. Paul Nathan, a well-known Berlin publicist, who has returned from an extensive trip through Russia as the special emissary of Jewish philanthropists in England, America, and Germany, to arrange for distribution of the relief fund of $1,000,000 raised after the massacres last Autumn.

Dr. Nathan paints a horrifying picture of the plight and prospects of his coreligionists, and forecasts at any hour renewed massacres exceeding in extent and terror all that have gone before. He left St. Petersburg with the firm conviction that the Russian Government's studied policy for the "solution" of the Jewish question is systematic and murderous extermination.

Dr. Nathan read to the meeting a circular addressed to the garrison of Odessa, calling upon the soldiers to "rise and crush the traitors who are plotting to upset the holy Government of the Czar and substitute for it a Jewish empire."

He concluded with an appeal to the Jewish money powers of the world to arrest Russia's career as a borrower. The financiers of the world should call a halt to Russia, not only for humanitarian reasons, but for practical reasons. Russia's bankruptcy is an established fact, he added.

"It is only a question of holding these facts continually before the civilized world; we must not permit the world to slumber. The number of Jews deprived of their rights and economic opportunity in Europe increased greatly last year, Dr Bernhard Kahn, European director of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, said on his arrival here last week from Europe.
The new Government of Rumania has threatened to outlaw 800,000 Rumanian Jews, "disregarding peace treaties, minority treaties and the constitution of the country," said Dr Kahn

More than 15,000 Jews had to leave Germany during the last year and in the middle of the year the German laws of racial discrimination were extended to the 12,000 Jew in Upper Silesia (the Danzig corridor)."
Dr Kahn said there are 25,000 refugees in Europe, the greater number of them living in need and in demoralizing uncertainty. He expressed the hope that the intergovernmental conference at the League of Nations would take up the refugee problem again in February.
"Five to six million in all are today the victims of governmental anti-Semitism and policies of unchecked anti-Semitic propaganda and persecution All these millions are in danger of losing their rights as citizens. END OF ZIONISM, MAYBE.

Jewish Preacher's View of Uprising in Russia.

The Rev. Dr. M. H. Harris spoke in the Temple Israel, Fifth Avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street, yesterday morning at the regular services on the "Russian Situation." He prefaced his remarks by reference to the Testaments and to history to show that the people had gradually received a larger sphere of freedom from nations and Governments for the exercise of their powers and duties.

He declared that a free and a happy Russia, with its 6,000,000 Jews, would possibly mean the end of Zionism, since the abolition of the autocracy would practically eliminate the causes that brougnt Zionism into existence.

Russia, he said, seemed to prefer its own bloody experience in learning the power of the people to profiting by the experience and the history of other nations.

In Some Places Jews Managed to Defend Themselves.

The Jewish Chronicle, of London, Charges the Russian Government with Responsibility for the Outrages.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, May 16.—The Jewish Chronicle, printed here, devotes considerable space to the Kishineff outrages, of which its St. Petersburg correspondent furnishes fresh and thrilling particulars.

The correspondent declares that the outrages would not have assumed anything like the proportions they did had the Jews been to some extent prepared, and had they organized themselves to meet attack. In some localities, in spite of the obstacles placed in their way by the police, the Jews did defend themselves, the result of this defense being that two Christians were killed and thirty-five injured.

The Chronicle's correspondent goes on to quote eye-witnesses, whose descriptions of the awful treatment of the Je[illegible]re published in the St. Petersburg Jewish paper The Friend. One man says:

"One body had nails driven through the temples. Another was disemboweled, the cavity being filled with feathers. Many had their tongues torn out. Women had their breasts cut off."

The mob, it is declared, behaved like savages, not killing the victims because they defended their property, but murdering after robbing.

The non-Jewish St. Petersburg paper the Novosti says the pen is powerless to write all the atrocities committed by the bloodthirsty mob, which spared neither young nor old, women nor children. Many Jews sought refuge with Christians, but in several cases shelter was denied them. The Jews concealed themselves in all manner of places, whence they were dragged out and killed outright or crippled.

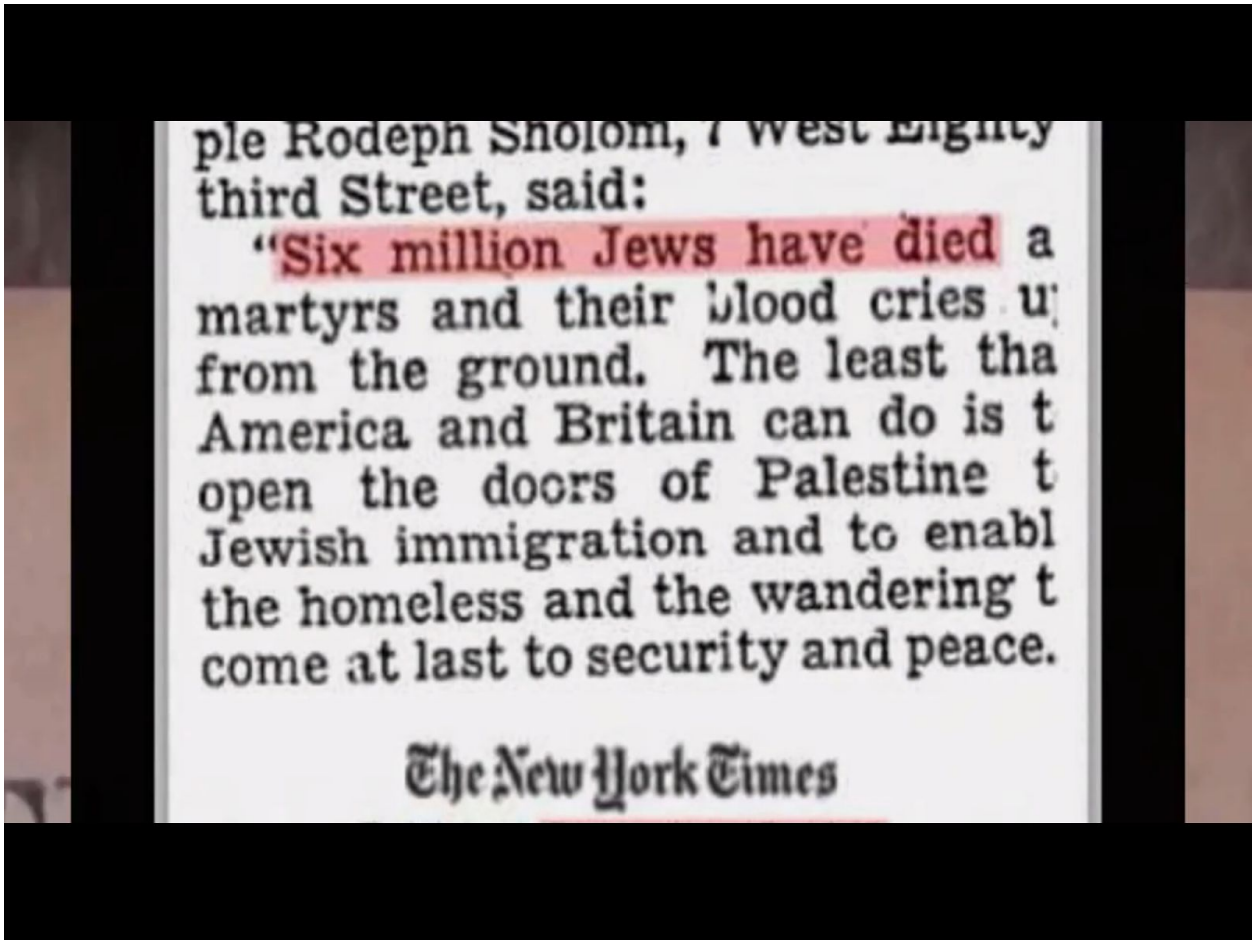

The Viedomosti of St. Petersburg says that a Jewish carrier who took a corpse to the hospital was a quarter of an hour later himself brought there dead.

Editorially The Jewish Chronicle says that if there is any Christianity in Christian Europe every country should ring with denunciation of the savage Government which has put the deeds of the Kurds and the Bashi-Bazouks in the shade, adding:

"We charge the Russian Government with responsibility for the Kishineff massacre. We say it is steeped to the eyes in the guilt of this holocaust. If Europe does not disassociate itself from the leprous taint of this barbarian power it writes its humanity down as a sham, its civilization as organized hypocrisy. The explanation of the Minister of the Interior is of a piece with the lies and prevarications which for years have poured from the Russian official printing press. * * *

"The whole of Russia, from the bureaucrats who lord it in their offices down to the local officials, the well-dressed ladies who shared the spoil from the looted shops, and the blood-drunken mob, is convicted of this foul crime. * * *

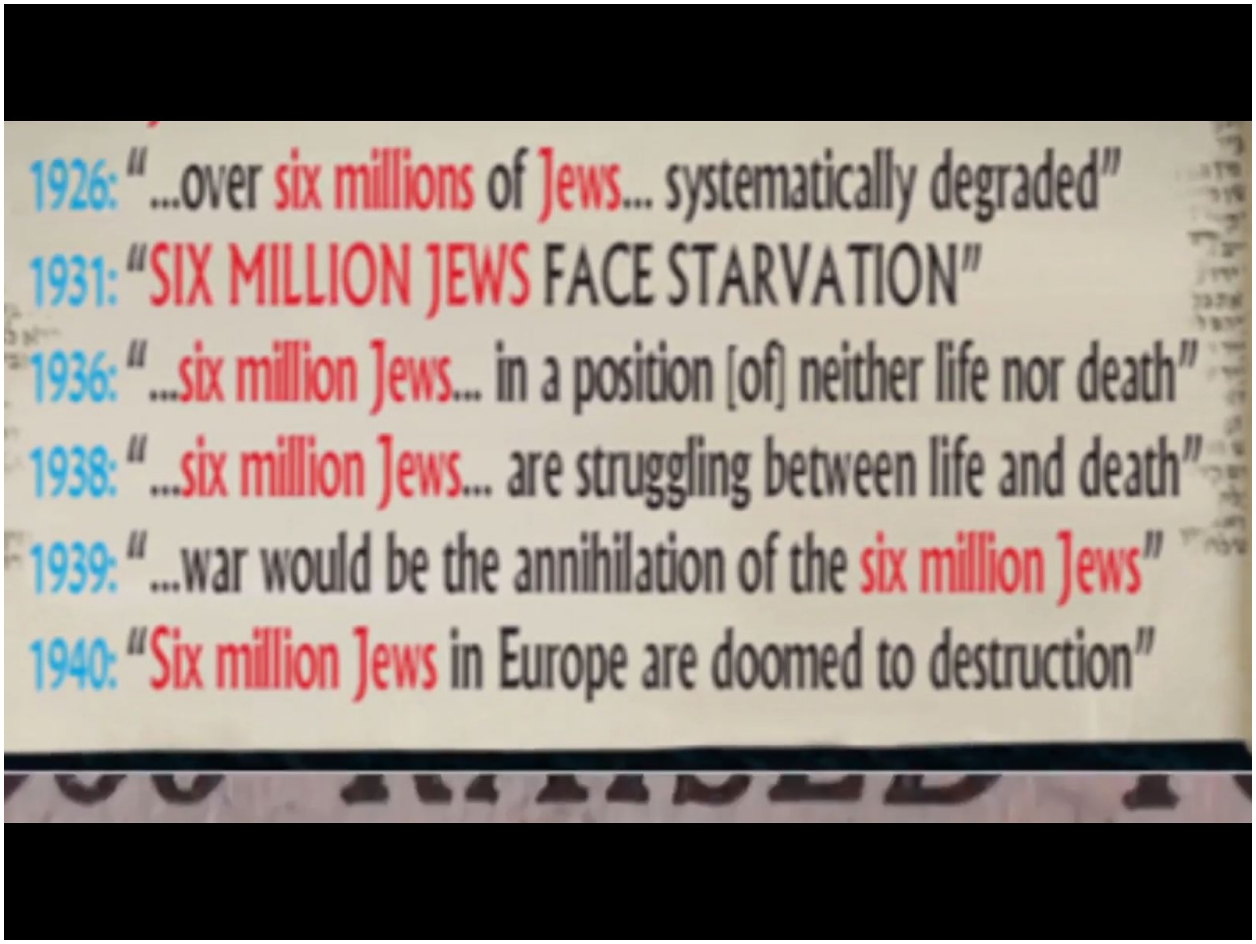

"The Central Government is doubly guilty. So long as a 'civilized' Government brands 5,000,000 people as a perilous pest which must be slowly annihilated, so long its baser subjects will think themselves justified in accelerating the process of extermination with knives, axes, and hatchets."

HEBREW WORDS
Benjamin Blech
These are the words chosen to be inscribed on the Liberty Bell. It is in the Jubilee year that "ye shall return every man unto his possession and ye shall return every man unto his family."
The Hebrew word for "ye shall return," תָּשֻׁבוּ (TaShuVU), seems to be spelled incorrectly. Grammatically it requires another ו (vav). It ought to read תשובו (TaShUVU).
Why is it lacking the letter (vav) which stands for six?.
[TaShuVU] without the vav is a prediction to the Jewish people of ultimate return to their national homeland. TaShuVU in numbers adds up to 708: tav=400, shin=300, vei=2, vey=6. When we write the year, we ignore the millennia. In 1948 on the secular calendar, we witnessed the miracle of Jewish return to Israel. On the Hebrew calendar it was the year 5708. That was the year predicted by the incomplete word תָּשֻׁבוּ (TaShuVU), you shall return.
We did return, lacking 6—an all-important 6 million of our people who perished during the Holocaust.
Yet the fulfillment of the prediction of return in precisely that year implied by the gematria of תָּשֻׁבוּ (TaShuVU) gives us firm hope that the words of the Prophets for Final Redemption will come true as well.

they were.

Mr. Falkenstein was sent to Dachau, but was sent home a few months later to sign over his father's factory to the Nazis. ''Our factory was being 'Aryanized,' '' he said. ''We had employed 150 to 160 people. When we finally got out and came to America, we were lucky to get jobs in a factory. And the women washed floors.''

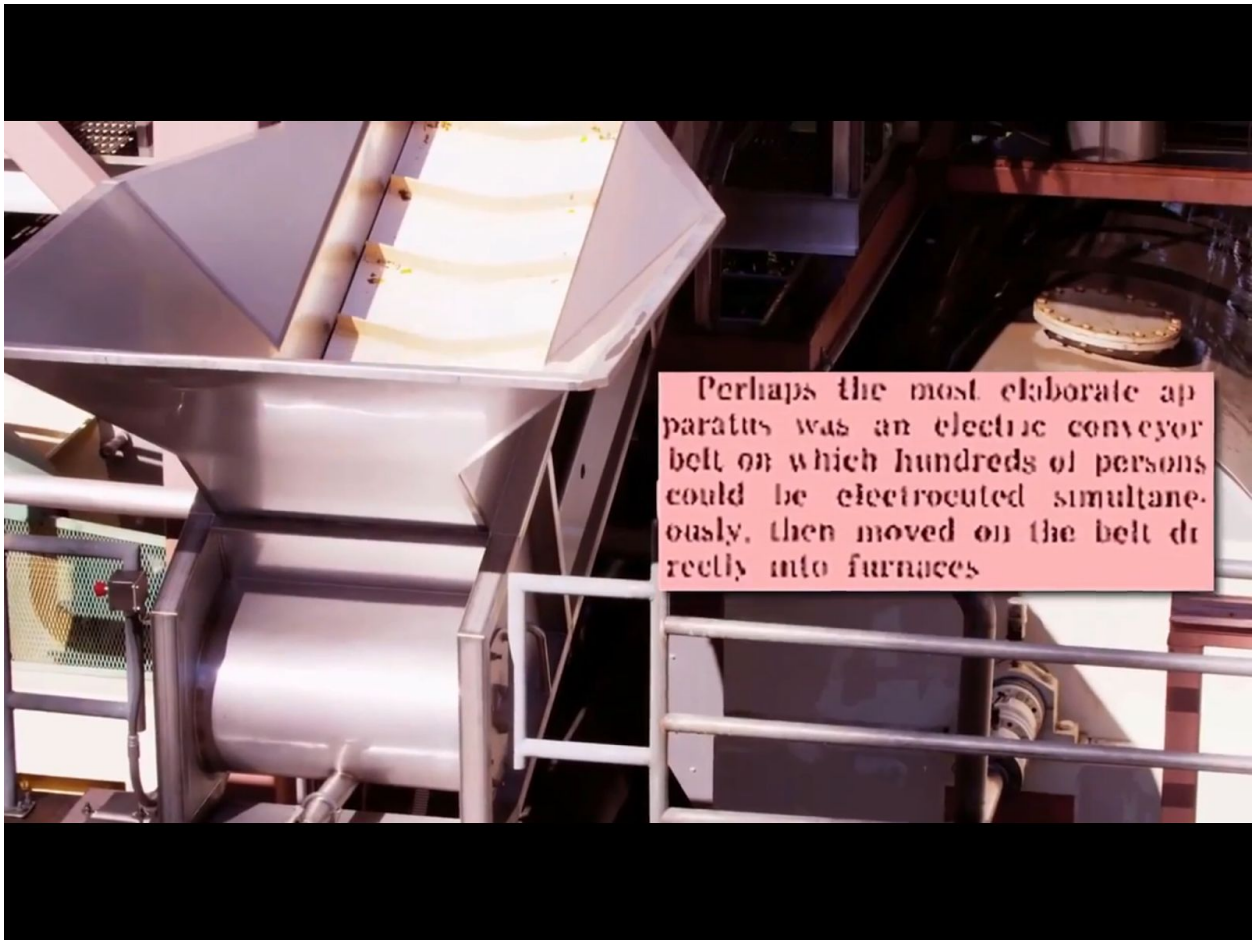

Lined Up Before Machine Guns

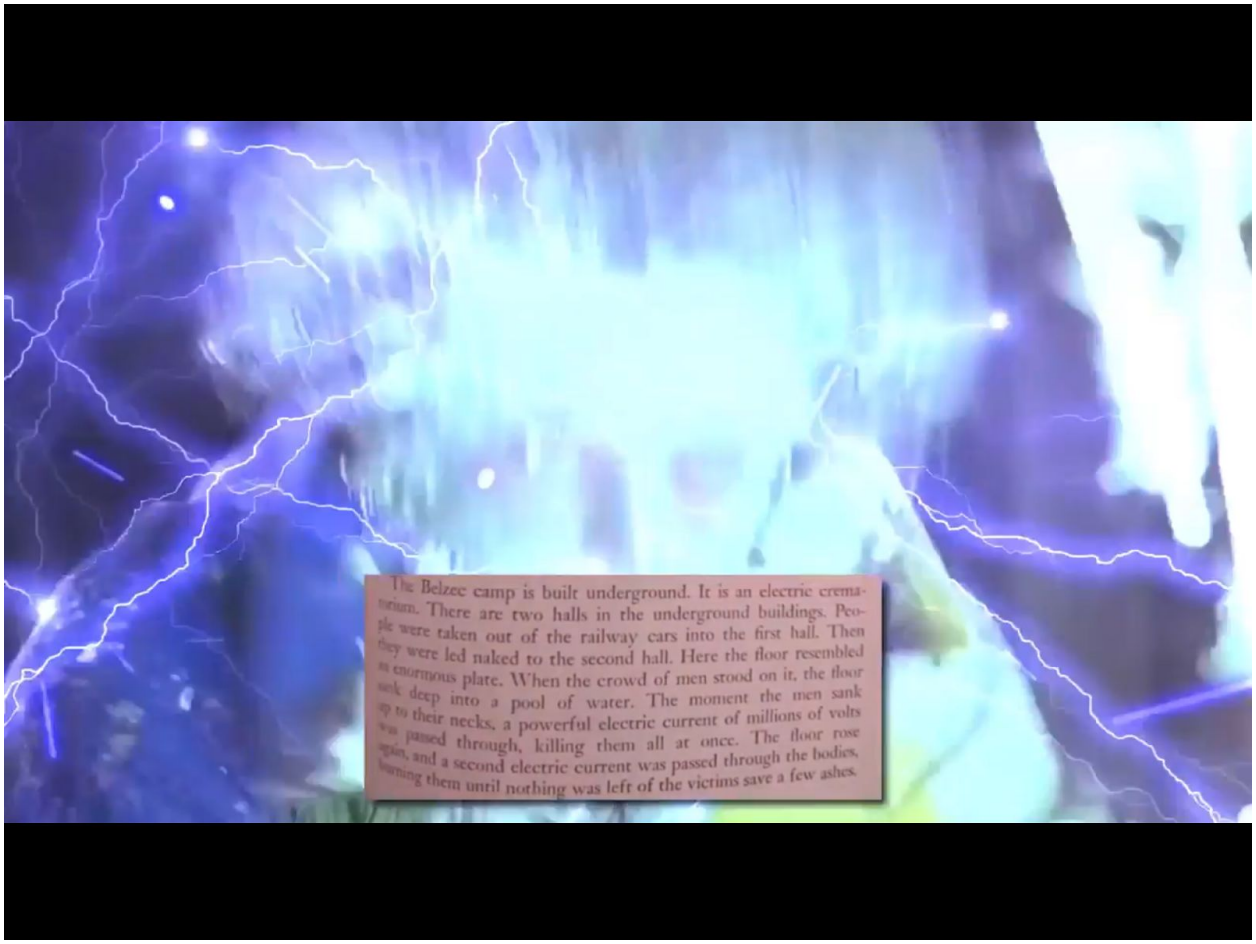

Morris Hubert, an 82-year-old retired butcher, was also arrested on Kristallnacht as he drove a car near his home in Frankfurt. ''The Nazis lined up 50 of us before the machine guns,'' he said. ''The commandant was called away to take a phone call. We waited. When he returned he sent us away. I still do not know why.''

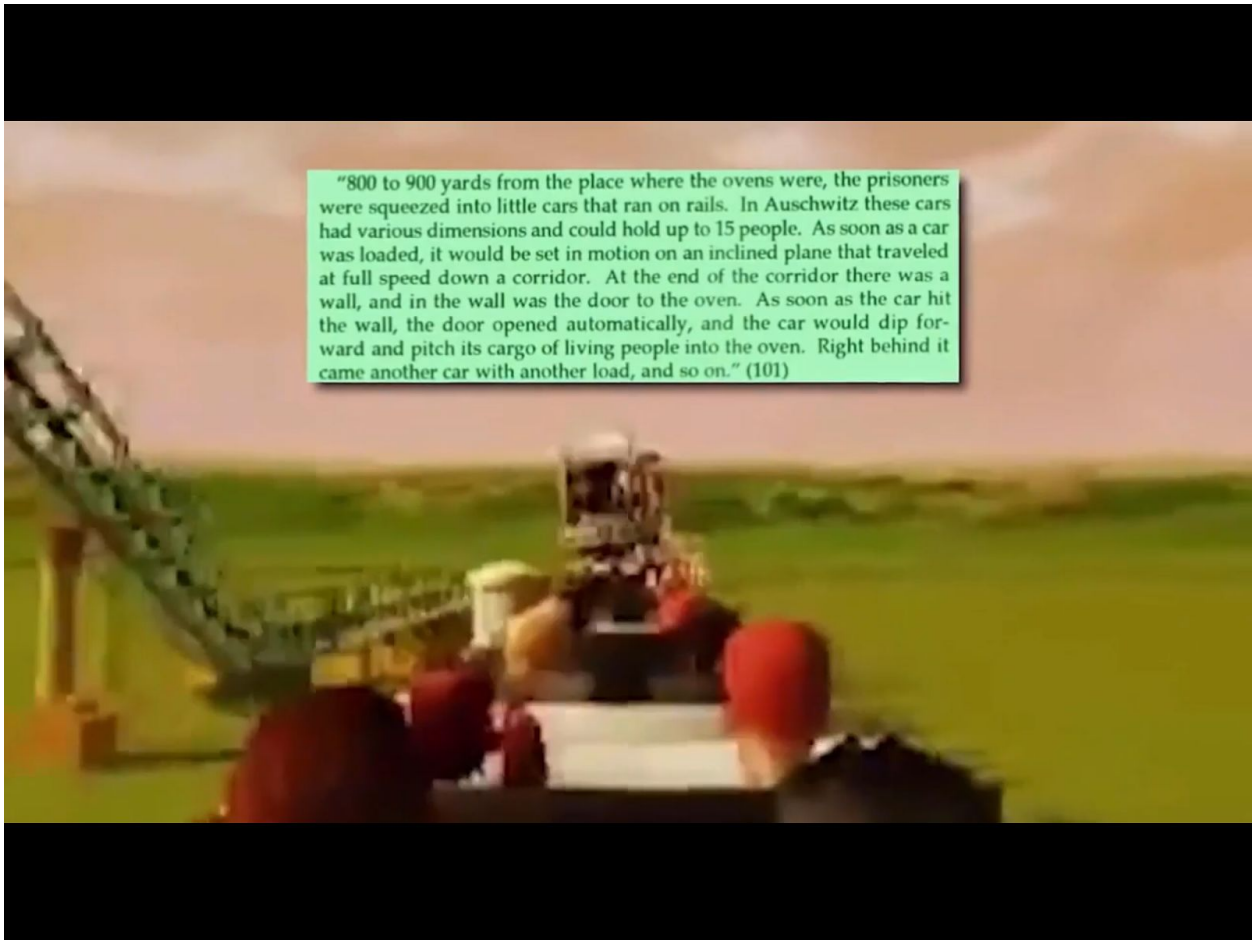

Later, Mr. Hubert was sent to Buchenwald. ''In the camp there was a cage with a bear and an eagle,'' he said. ''Every day, they would throw a Jew in there. The bear would tear him apart and the eagle would pick at his bones.''

''But that's unbelievable,'' whispered a visitor.

''It is unbelievable,'' said Mr. Hubert, ''but it happened.''

The Belzec camp is built underground. It is an electric crematorium. There are two halls in the underground buildings. People were taken out of the railway cars into the first hall. Then they were led naked to the second hall. Here the floor resembled an enormous plate. When the crowd of men stood on it, the floor sank deep into a pool of water. The moment the men sank up to their necks, a powerful electric current of millions of volts was passed through, killing them all at once. The floor rose again, and a second electric current was passed through the bodies, burning them until nothing was left of the victims save a few ashes.

"800 to 900 yards from the place where the ovens were, the prisoners were squeezed into little cars that ran on rails. In Auschwitz these cars had various dimensions and could hold up to 15 people. As soon as a car was loaded, it would be set in motion on an inclined plane that traveled at full speed down a corridor. At the end of the corridor there was a wall, and in the wall was the door to the oven. As soon as the car hit the wall, the door opened automatically, and the car would dip forward and pitch its cargo of living people into the oven. Right behind it came another car with another load, and so on." (101)

'I saw no gas chambers'

I cannot see how a butterfly poem proves Holocaust. Perhaps a letter from an Israeli citizen, Esther Grassman, who was a concentration camp prisoner, might be more to the point:

"Visiting Germany I heard with great agitation the discussions about the 'Holocaust'. I managed to escape the inferno. My confinement in Buchenwald and Auschwitz is indelibly engraved in my memory. In my almost three-year capitivity I witnessed people in their primitive state, the immoderation of people who had power over others and senseless cruelty, but also the capacity for patience and the great spirit of my people.

"Since the truth is not separable, I must also say that I received help and comfort from many Germans in this difficult time. Also, I saw no gas chambers, nor even heard of them until after my release. I feel in this matter as so many Germans do, therefore I understand the often-heard doubts. I feel that an open investigation by fully disinterested parties is important, for only the truth can help us get along together — now and in coming generations."

The above is just one small item out of literally volumns of information now available to refute Holocaust. (It is important to understand that books and articles refuting the hoax have been very actively suppressed.)

The Holocaust theory claims six million Jews were gassed. This has been shown to be false and in fact mathematically impossible.

The United States is in danger of being drawn into a war in the Middle East that is none of our business. A war that would make Viet Nam look like a training exercise and could lead to WW III.

One of the reasons we have not opened our eyes to this danger is that we are still blinded by a guilt complex from the Holocaust propaganda.

Because of Holocaust, Israel was given part of Palestine and they took it all! How would we feel if the UN gave the Vietnamese boat people half of Kansas and they took it all?

Many historians now acknowledge that the Nuremburg trials were a Kangaroo court in the best traditions of the Old West hanging judge. "Just bring in the guilty bastards and we'll fix the evidence to hang them." Much of the Holocaust documentation came from that source. Holocaust can not be proved by using the very documents that were manufactured to set it up in the first place. Many involved in this propaganda hoax have since admitted their parts in it. (Technicians involved in altering plumbing at Dacau after the war, etc.)

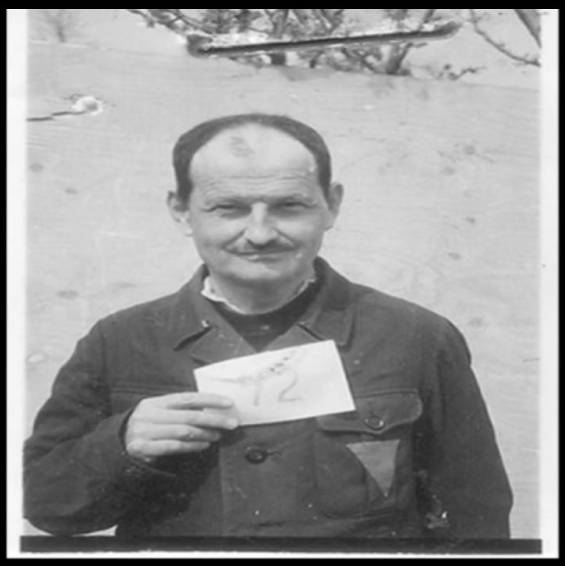

It would appear that those responding (Oct. 15) to my "Holocaust" letter of Oct. 8 did not even bother to read any of the reference material.

The principal cause of death in concentration camps was widespread disease, mainly typhus. As the war went more and more in our favor, deaths from disease, starvation and malnutrition skyrocketed. (I've read that as many as 40,000 a day died — explaining the piles of bodies at war's end.) The death rate was even higher among Russian and Polish prisoners (ever hear that before?).

The estimate of Jewish deaths is now more on the order of one and one-half million from all causes (warfare, disease, etc.) as opposed to the impossible hoax figure of six million gassed.

Still searching for the truth for a change, I am a WWII veteran with 24 years.

"The Holocaust is the biggest lie in history.. Jewish pressure has inflicted laws on democratic societies to prevent questions (and) incessant promotion and indoctrinatio of the same averredly incontestable 'holocaust'... proves it must be a lie. Why el would one not be allowed to question it?...
Because the exposure of this leading l might precipitate questions about so many other lies and cause the whole ramshackle fabrication to crumble." (Gerard Menuhin: 'Tell the Truth and Shame the Devil' - 2015)

IN GERMANY – 87-YEAR-OLD WOMAN URSULA HAVERBECK SENTENCED TO PRISON FOR QUESTIONING JEW HOLOCAUST HOAX

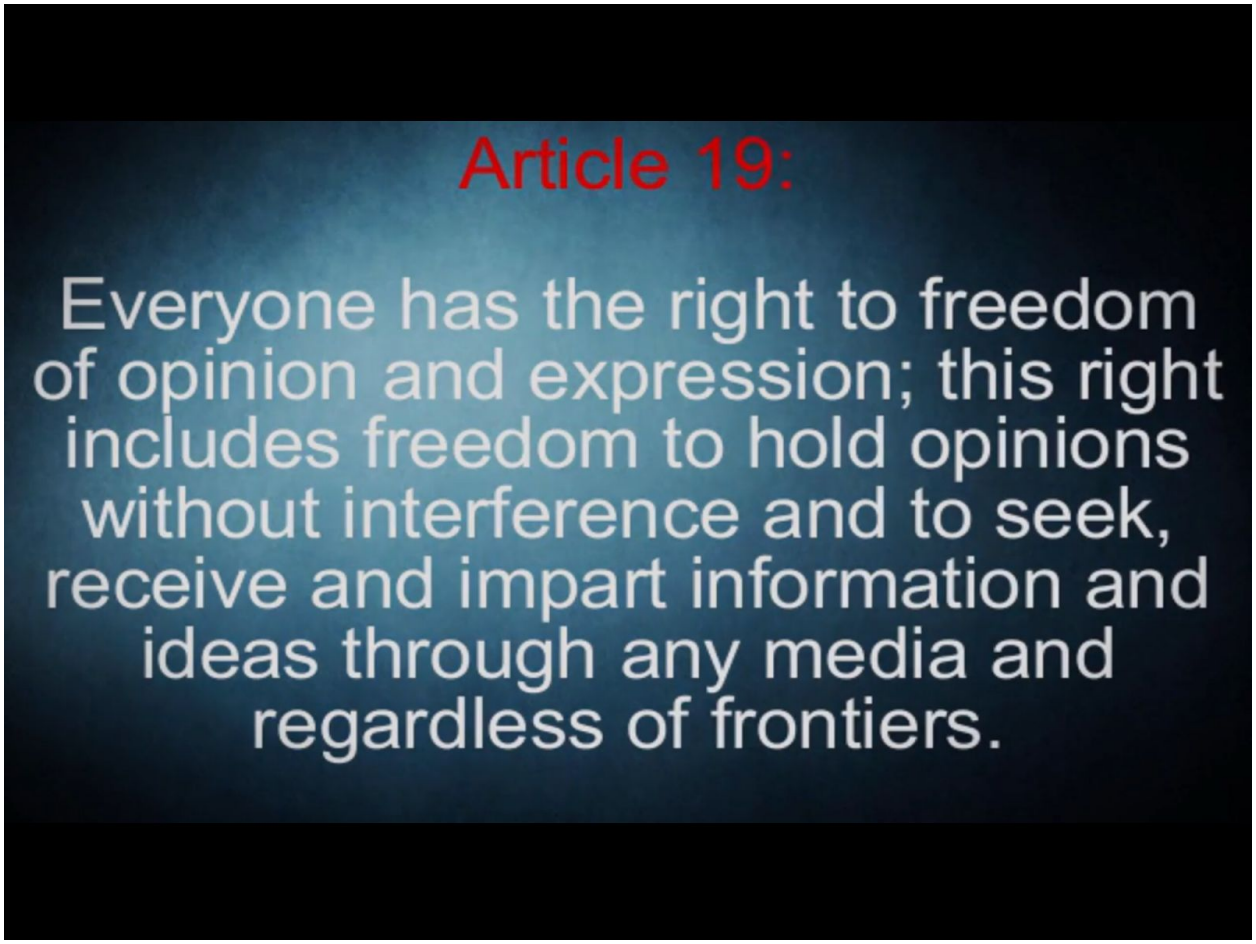

Is this justice? Sentencing an 87-year-old woman to jail because she questions a historical event?

This is insane. People everywhere should be questioning the Jew Holocaust narrative. Why would they need to lobby governments to pass laws which jail people for questioning these events if everything happened as they said? The Jew Holocaust is a lie and Ursula Haverbeck who bravely called out this hoax for what it is should be viewed as a hero to the German volk. Stay Strong Ursula. We ARE with you
